CONCLUSION 27 On the basis of the foregoing, it is concluded that the Board abused its discretion in awarding only $200 in attorneys' fees as a reasonable amount to the prevailing party. The record reveals that the firm involved expended in excess of 250 hours on this case. The rate of $85.00 per hour is the customary rate of compensation for the services of a trial attorney in the Southern District of California, and is reasonable in this case. Therefore, in accordance with the mandate of the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. Sec. 504(b), the Board is required to award a reasonable fee as provided in 5 U.S.C. Sec. 504(a), and the only question for decision is whether the amount of the fee awarded is reasonable. 28 The Board has wide discretion in awarding attorneys' fees. Gaskill v. United States, 579 F.2d 654, 656 (Ct.Cl.1978). But the exercise of that discretion must be based upon a clearly articulated standard. Madison v. United States, 718 F.2d at 792.
