A bola de cristal e a luva de ópera crescem a fatia deste país, mas as dinâmicas são as mesmas: em algo que é muito do Brasil, em geral, e na América Latina em particular, os seus esportes estão profundamente enraizados no gosto e nas paixões. Arizona lawmakers approved a bill Monday that would make it a felony to park a vehicle in a no-parking zone and allow the city of Phoenix to file a lawsuit against the violators. The bill would provide serious penalties for people who park in no-parking zones and block emergency access to public facilities, according to Rep. Jay Lawrence, D-Tucson. Lawrence said the bill would likely be a repeat offender, meaning he expects the city to be filing lawsuits against these violators. "It's a huge public safety problem," Lawrence said. "Most of these are repeat offenders and they are not honoring the law." The bill will now be in the hands of Gov. Doug Ducey. The bill is one of several that was being voted on during the first day of the second special session, which began Monday morning. Other bills that passed in committee include: Ⓓ A bill that would allow the mayor to appoint a lieutenant governor to serve as the acting governor when the governor is unavailable. Ⓓ A bill that would reinstate the desalination tax that was repealed in 2013. Ⓓ A bill that would allow the department of agriculture to reduce the authorization of pesticide applications. Ⓓ A bill that would make the state's medical marijuana program eligible for federal funding. Ⓓ A bill that would exempt some small businesses from paying state sales tax. Ⓓ A bill that would prohibit abortions on women's health or for sex selection. Ⓓ A bill that would allow the Arizona Christian School Association and other religious organizations to refuse health care and other services related to contraception and abortions if they oppose such practices. Ⓓ A bill that would allow Arizona's school safety commission to spend $25 million on security enhancements and other costs. Ⓓ A bill that would make it a crime to pay an individual for an act that would work to prevent the homeless from being fed at certain locations. The present invention relates to a new and distinctive soybean cultivar, designated S110158. All publications cited in this application are herein incorporated by reference. Michigan learned exactly how hard that lesson was to take home from the Iowa 20-16 victory in the Rose Bowl on Wednesday. "Losing," Michigan defensive coordinator Don Brown said, "was just not good enough. " The Wolverines are glad that resolution was on the road back home. They're eager to reunite with their students. "It's going to be great having them back," Brown said. "It's going to be fun. They've been around the corner a lot this year." Brown's secondary was a bright spot in an otherwise dreary day for Michigan. Barrett and Jehu Chesson stepped in front of Iowa quarterback C.J. Beathard six times. "There were definitely a few times when there was a game in there where one of them could have left the game," Brown said. "But they stuck in there. That's what I told them before the game. This is a big win. It's good to know how we play in big games. That's a great confidence boost. "It's like I've been saying. This is a new defense. We're going to play for a while. We're going to get out there and play some great football. But you've got to win some games. That's what this win did for us. Now we can get after that. " Manti Te'o seemingly proved he was worthy of the No. 1 overall draft choice and Heisman Trophy this season. But a shoulder injury limited the Fighting Irish's most dynamic playmaker against Notre Dame. The Illini are the newest team in the Big Ten.
